Washington, Dec. 6.—Mr. Paddock pre-sented the protest of the Farmers' Alli-ance, now in convention at Ocala, Fla., against the passage of the Conger lard bill.

Mr. Sherman introduced three bills, and one amendment to a bill, all of which were referred to the finance committee.

The new bills are as follows: "To amend the law relating to the refining and parting of bullion; to amend the act authorizing the receipt of gold coin in exchange for gold bars; and a bill authorizing the recoinage of subsidiary coins of the United States. The amendment is one to the senate bill to reduce the amount of United States bonds to be required of national

Mr. Ingails called up a bill making two of the three District of Columbia commissioners a quorum. The discussion on this bill continued until 2 o'clock, when the bill went over without action.

The senate then resumed consideration of the election bill, and Mr. Gray resumed the floor and continued his argument Before Mr. Gray had finished his speech the sensin went into executive session and soon adjourned.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.-Mr. O'Neill, of Washington, Dec. 6.—Mr. O'Neill, of Pennsylania, from the committee on li-brary, called up the senate joint resolu-tion asking the president to request the family of General Grant to permit the re-moval of the remains of her husband to Arlington cemetery. The morning boar expired without action on the resolution. On motion of Mr. Perkins, of Kansas, the senate bill was passed (with unim-nortant amendments) auroprivating $100. nortant amendments) appropriating $100, $00 for the purchase of additional rations for the Stoux Indians.

On motion of Mr. Spinela, of New York, and referred to a committee.

An amendment to the constitution was offered by Mr. Buchanan, which provides that it shall not be necessary for an Alliance editor to get the official sanction of the president before publishing a state, county or sub-Alliance organ.

Complaint was made by Col. Livingstone, of Georgia, that the government statistician relied too much on information furnished by uninformed congres-men. The committee on agricultural statistics reported, proposing that a committee of five Alliance congressmen make arrangements to get statistics, so that the people will not be dependent on reports from the government statistician. They are to co-operate with the Alliance crop Matistician in his labors.

Frank Burkitt. of Mississippi, moved that a roster be furnished of all sub-Ai liance searcharies, who will send to each Alliance all information in their possess sion bearing on statistics.

Mr. Turner, of Georgia, protested against such roster being furnished, as it gave one man too much power. He said that such a rester could be used to destroy the order by politicians or schemers; that if he, as national secretary, had a rester in his possession, and had been willing, he could have sold it for $10,000 during the recent disseminate their corrupting literature Col. Livingstone, of Georgia, supported Secretary Furner in his argument, and, while speaking at some length on the sub-ject was in errupted by Delegate H. Harvey, of Florida, on a point of order that of the convention in talking. Col Living stone replied that when he run things, lie run them in shape; that there was some system and order present, and that some business was done; but that when Harvey had anything to do with affairs, there was only disorder, anarchy and confusion. Mr. Turner got the floor again, and said Mr. Turner got the noor again, and said that during the Kansas campaign Senator Ingalls had offered $ ,000 for a roster of the Kansas secretaries alone, the inference being that such a roster would largely in-crease in value as the Alliance extended into other states. into other states.

Mr. Powderly addressed the Alliance delegates at Exposition hall this after-toon. He advocated reform in the employment of child labor insisted that the government had the right to control the railways, and then made a fiery attack upon the employment of laborsaving ma-chinery, in defrauding the workmen of the nered God's wrath and compelled it to do their bidding. He denounced sectionalism and said: "No matter what politicians say, we of the two sections are together again, and together we will fight mon-oply." This sentiment brought fourth great appliance.

John Davis, of Kansas, spoke upon the financial question, and this closed the exercises of "Labor day."
The National Alliance adjourned just

Or how carry it on?
While the debate was at its height, Dr.
McCune got the floor, and said that if Mr.
Hall's report were read, he should certainly claim the right to offer testimony in rebuttal on the floor of the convention.

As he sat down a dozen members clam-ored for recognition, and, without getting it, demandeD in loud voices an investiga-tion of the most searching character. Mc-Cune's friends, in the meanwhile, using every art of the politician and parliamen-tarian to choke off the whole business, and to proceed with the order of the afternoon. to proceed with the order of the afternoon. Those of the anti-McCimeites, who managed to make themselves heard, said that if there was a "cat in the hegr." they wanted it let out. They demanded again and again that Hall's report be read. Wade, of Tennessee, and Frank Burkitt, of Mississippi, fairly howled for the report; the latter, who is g typical Mississippian, vociferating wildly, and never permitting the opsosition to silence his demand, so that he had to be listened to and the reading of the report was ordered by a big majority amid cheers and shouts.

the report was ordered by a big majority amid cheers and shouts.

As Hall arose from his seat again, the troubled waters subsided. In a most dignified manner, and amid a forbidding silence, he proceeded to state that he had refused to sign the report of the investigating committee for the following reasons: First, because it censured Presedent Polk for writing the Nerwood letter, a censure which was unjust to Polk for various reasons; second; because it exonerated Dr. McCune, although McCune and actually and openly admitted before the ommittee, that he had gone to Georgia and formed a combination among members of the Alliance legislature and orders in the interest of Pat Calhoun for the United States senatorship; third, because McCune had also admit ed that Calhoun had loaned him (McCune) $20,000; and, because McCune (McCune) $20,000; and, because McCune had further admitted that he remained sixteen days in Georgia lobbying for Cal-billices for the part (aylinems, and the paid out on account of pensions. This, together with the $5,000,000 to be paid for bends under the above call, will make $56,000,000 to be put into circulation with in the next week or ten days.

INGALLS' DENIAL.

Washington, Dec. 6.—Senator Ingalls says that Mr. Turner's speech, mentioned in the Ocala dispatch, is without foundation.

THE ALLIANCE.

Commselman and Armour came in and offered such prices as drove us out of business. They would buy the grain under our noses, and set it down here in Chicago at 2 cents less than we could. We noticed that the grain was taken off the line of the Burlington and Missouri road as soon as possible—at Omaha generally—and shipped by some other route to Chicago. A good deal of it came over the Santa Fe and the Rock I shand. I appealed to Mr. Thomas Miller, of the Burlington, to carry out its solemn agreement to protect is in rates. He said that the interstate commerce law prohibited cutting rates THE ALLIANCE.

OCAL2, Fla., Dec. 6.—At the Alliance meeting this morning a resolution was offered by Governor-elect Buchanan, of Tennessee, to amend the Ocaia platform adopted yesterday, so that the president of the National Alliance should have the power to suspend the editor of any newspaper organ which advocates any policy or any measures in violation of said platform. The amendment was discussed at length and referred to a committee.

I tool him we did not want him to violate the law, but we must have rates that would protect us against competing lines, or else go out of business. Mr. Milier said he would see what could be done. Shortly after this we began to receive grain from Omaia elevators. I did not know how it came, and did not inquire.

'I have since learned that the matter was accomplished through our head book-keeper, Mr. Galhap. maneial question, and this closed the exercises of "Labor day."

The National Alliance adjourned just before noon today, while the resolution or furnishing a roster of sub-Alliance scretaries was under discussion. When the meeting was called together at 3 p. m., no body expected a continuance of this debate. A stormy cloud meanwhile had been gathering, and everybody waiting to hear it burst. It related to the McCune-Polk-Livingstone investigation, and it burst with a suddemess and an uproar well calculated to suit the most sensation loving Alliance man in the convention hall.

President Hall, of the Missouri Alliance got the floor and was loaded to the next with indignation, which subsequently found vent in a written protest which held in his hand against the report of the committee on investigation, submitted and adopted yesterday. He proceeded to read from manuscript, his reasons for not signing that report. But he had bardly read the beginning sentence, when McCune's friends, through delegate Wynn, of Kentucky, objected to Hall's stating his reasons, on the ground that his previously formulated objections were in the nature of a minority report, which he had one of the convention's final action on the majority (or regular) report of the committee.

A cross fire of objections and demands ensued, during which there was a deal of sharp shooting, and the excitement arose to the highest pitch. The whole business was before the convention again. What would it do? How would it get rid of it? Or how carry it on?

While the debate was at its height, Dr. McCune got the floor, and said that if Mr. Hall's report were read, he should certainly claim the right to offer testimony in rebutatal on the floor of the convention.

this morning received two telegrams from Gen. Miles, at Chicago. In one he quotes Gen. Brooke as saying that one of the main causes of discontent among the hostile Indians is that a certain hand of oux living on Pass creek, at Rosebud ency, have been onlered to move, ainst their will. These Indians desire be transferred to the Pine Ridge agency, and have secured the consent of the Indians now there. Gen. Brooke, in asking for authority to permit the trans-fer, states that, in his opinion, this would still further aid in the disintegration of General Miles telegraphed him in reply that he had ample directions in the mat-ter, but advised him not to make promises to the Indians. He could assure them, however, that the government had se-cured increased tations, and more general employment, and that the soldiers would be their friends so long as they kept peace but their bitterest enemies should they comit crimes and defy the government. In the other telegrams, General Miles says that reports from General Brooke indicate a more faverable co-dition. Two Strike is expec-ed in today. General Mile saysthat he does not regard Two Strike threat to stab General Brooke as a signa for hostilities, as important, inasmuch it was made by him in an Iodian harang to his own people, and not in the presen-of a strong body of United States troop He says that in case the disintegration continues, the outbreak will be prevented for this winter, at least. The situation is still a grave one, in his opinion, and will require extreme watchfulness on the part of the authorities to satisfy the Indians and to avert hostilities until the spring.

THE UNION PACIFIG.

New Yorns, Dec. 6—The executive committee of the Union Pacific railway held a meeting in the office of Jay Gould today. Messrs, Russell Sage, Andrew Dillox, F. A. Ames and George Gould, comprising the executive committee, were present. Mr. Gould said after the meeting: "The question of consolidating the floating debt of the Union Pacific railway has been also gether the subject of the executive committee's deliberations. The Union Pacific is all right, and the extrange of the Pacific is all right, and the earnings of the road are greater than ever. The nature of Pacific is all right, and the earnings of the road are greater than ever. The nature of the meeting todes was largely to discuss advisability of calling on the various rull-road presidents. The object of the conference would have no other significance than the promotion of harmony and good fellowship among the railway officials, so that they would be a unit in the event of a demonstration in rates. Such a conference of the demoralization in rates. Such a conference would be a power in precluding the possibility of a recurrence of any sort of demoralization. Many days will not pass when that conference will be held."

Lonpoy, Dec. 6.—In a leading article to-day, the Star (Home Enlie) says that the situation looks bad. The National party can be saved on one condition. Instead of the Irish members of parliament talking of resigning in a body, let them coshier Mr. Parnell. Mr. Gladstone received the Irish delegates yesterday with tourning fatherly kindness and courtesy. Mr. Gladstone told the delegates that as soon as a new leader was appointed he would be prepared to treat with him. The Rome Build. leader was appointed he would be pre-pared to treat with him. The Home Rule movement would then proceed as if it had never received the smallest chack.

On application of Linscott Brothers, of Holton, Kansas, the Lake Shore Driving park, of St. Joseph, Mo., was ordered to return the entrance money paid in for a race that was afterward declared off.

WESTERN PASSENGER AGREEMENT. WESTERN PASSENGER AGREEMENT.
CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—The northwestern committee of the Western Passenger association today adopted the agreement upon which they have been laboring for several days past. The document as adopted includes only a few changes from the origine al draft. One change is that the advisory board shall be composed of Mesars. Finley, Midgley and Donald.

The agreement will take effect on Dec. 1, and, with one exception, every line is bound to give ninety days' notice of withdrawal. An understanding was reached.
